

SPECIAL THANKS

EVENT COMMITTEE

Diana Humphrey
Jane Roberts
John Sadler

JUDGES

Patrick Howell
Chairman, Cotswold Players
Graham Bill
Professional Actor
Sue Cheshire
Dursley Operatic and Dramatic Society

CONTRIBUTORS

Awards for All
Grant Funding

Jo Bousefield & Sara Bond
Gloucestershire Theatre Production Office
Guidance on grant

Stroud
Festival

Five Live

Drama

2006

WELCOME

Welcome to the first Five Live Drama Event. The six plays are listed alphabetically – they may not be in this order.

ALONE

This Year 11/13 play is about a young woman who lives for her role in the sound of music, and the man it brings her close to, until she feels betrayed on the final night, and takes desperate measures.

*Stroud High School, led by Catherine Sargent; Head of Drama
Rosie Mercer
Mathilda Ffrench
Anna McSweeny*

HIS OWN WAY

This Year 9 play is the story of the death of a ruthless Mafia boss, as told by his son on the anniversary of the day that it happened.

*Marling School, led by Jeff Gillett; Head of Drama
Matthew Henderson
Tomas Kaspar
Adam Patel
Joe Jepps
Freddie Mackereth
Dan Omnes*

NUMBER 30 VIA TAVISTOCK SQUARE

This Year 10 play is about the London bombings.

*Thomas Keble School – led by Jennie Crosby; Head of Drama
Katharine Birkin
Hayley Doolan
Tom Dunn
Charlotte Lewis
Emily McCollum*

EVENTS

REMEMBRANCE

A Year 10 performance about the bombings in London.

*Thomas Keble School – led by Jennie Crosby; Head of Drama
Callum Bonner
Janneke Curtis
Rosie Haighton
Carly Mallinson
Martin Mills
Kyle Summers*

THE ANNIVERSARY DISASTER

This Year 8/9 play is about a girl arranging an anniversary dinner which goes from bad to worse especially when her friends try to lend a hand.

*Stroud High School, led by Catherine Sargent; Head of Drama
Sarah Kane
Hannah Watson
Freddie Perrins
Miriam Gardner*

THE RETURN OF DONALD DUCK

This Year 11 play uses Dennis Potter's Blue Remembered Hills as a starting point, beginning where his play ended but taking it in a direction that Potter would not have envisaged. It is not a sequel in any conventional sense.

*Marling School, led by Jeff Gillett; Head of Drama
James Sidwell
Dominic De Souza
Joe Tyrrell
Jack Moreton-Burt*